

Hello Everyone, I hope you had a good first week back at school and you've survived the cold weather....I'm not a cold weather girl, but then I guess it does give me a chance to wear some of the nice scarves I've collected from different places I've been too, so I guess there is always a blessing in everything, we just have to look for it.

Today I thought we might look at the Psalm for today, the one Rev Des will be saying with those who are in church today. A few people wrote the Psalms, we know that, but we also know that David wrote quite a few of them. David is a man who went through a whole pile of feelings and troubles, but God loved him through them all.

Do you think anyone ever tries to play "Hide and Seek" with God? Do you remember the story of Adam and Eve? After they had eaten the fruit that God had told them not to eat, they heard God walking in the garden. They were ashamed of what they had done and didn't want God to find them. What did they do? They ran and hid among the trees. Did God find them? Sure he did. You can't hide from God

The Bible tells us that God chose David to be the king of Israel because he was "a man after God's own heart." (Acts 13:22) But even David did things that did not please God. There were probably times when David wished he could hide from God, but he knew it was impossible.

We can't hide from God either. He knows all about us. He knows what we are going to say before we say it and what we are going to do before we do it. It is foolish to play "Hide and Seek" with God. Besides, the reason God comes seeking is because he loves us and wants to bless us. Why would we want to hide from his blessing?

So I've written out the Psalm for today, I'd really like you to read it, or get help to read it and mark a couple of lines that as you read or as you heard it being read you thought I like that line or that sentence is really something I need to think about a bit more.

I've already looked at Psalm 139 and copied the lines that mean something special to me and I've found a couple of pictures to go with it.....why don't you do the same or draw something about the words in this psalm that mean something to you.

I'd love it if you'd send me a copy of what you did, here's my email or perhaps you could send me a photo to my mobile 0402062020

Well maybe you think today's K4J was a bit different.....well it is important to think a bit about what we read and what it means to us, especially when we're following God.

Well have a great Sunday I know God will bless you heaps.....hmm now wonder what scarf I should wear church....perhaps the one I bought when we travelled to Israel!
